

Eamonn Maloney TD & Pat Rabbitte TD

TO THE RESIDENTS OF BALLYBODEN, BALLYROAN, BUTTERFIELD, KNOCKLYON, RATHFARNHAM & WILLBROOK

Dear Resident

As you may be aware the Dublin South Dail constituency has been abolished. Your community will be included in the new Dail Constituency of Dublin South West. The Dublin South West constituency also includes the communities of Firhouse, Greenhills, Tallaght and Templeogue. Should you have any issue - either national or local - feel free to contact either of us or our colleague, your local Councillor Paddy Cosgrave.

Sincerely,

Eamonn Maloney TD

Pat Rabbitte TD

Minister for Communications, Energy and Natural Resources

AMONN MALONEY TD

Eamonn was first elected to South Dublin County Council in 1999. He served twice as Mayor of the County and has a proven track record as a campaigner against over development and for better housing. Prior to becoming unemployed in 2009 Eamonn was involved in the recycling business for over 20 years having established Ireland's first recycling plant. He was elected to the Dail in 2011 and has campaigned for Dail reform and for the abolition of the Seanad. Eamonn has a passionate interest in the heritage of Tallaght and is a regular contributor to the Tallaght Echo on Tallaght History. He is the author of "Tallaght A Place with History". Eamonn is a member of An Taisce and is also on the board of the Civic Theatre in Tallaght.

PAT RABBITTE TD

First elected to Dail Eireann in 1989 Pat has frequently been named as Parliamentarian of the Year having a proven track record as an effective TD, spokesperson and Minister. Pat has served as a Minister of State (for Commerce, Science and Technology from 1994-1997) and, from 2002-2007, as Leader of the Labour Party. In 2011 he was appointed Minister for Energy, Communications & Natural Resources. In addition to playing a positive role in securing jobs and infrastructure for his constituency Pat established the Local Drugs Task Forces in 1996 to address the scourge of drugs on a community basis. He also played a leading role in the DIRT Inquiry which recovered approximately €1 Billion of unpaid taxes from the banks.

CLLR PADDY COSGRAVE

Paddy and his family have lived in Rathfarnham for over 20 years. Paddy was co-opted onto South Dublin County Council in 2007. Paddy is a hard-working local representative campaigning on transport and planning issues. Paddy believes that the role of a councillor is to defend the community interest and not just what officialdom believes the community needs.
